OFFICIAL STATEMENT

The contact lenses marketed under the brand name "Universe Lens" in Brazil are manufactured at the same production facility as those marketed under the brand name "Urban Layer."

Universe Lens and Urban Layer are distinct brands operated under separate regulatory and commercial frameworks. Universe Lens holds the valid ANVISA sanitary registration in Brazil and is legally responsible for the commercialization of Universe Lens products in the country.

Due to legal and commercial considerations, including trademark rights and brand independence, brand names are used independently and are not cross-referenced on product packaging.

This statement is issued for general clarification purposes.
